

TENARCHITECTS

TENARCHITECTS is located in lively Antwerp, guided by passionate architect Elke Van Goel. The studio has earned its stripes by creating harmonious designs that perfectly combine aesthetics and functionality. Not only do they excel in residential projects, but offices, restaurants and other sectors are familiar terrain as well. Under the name TENSTUDIO, they unleash their creativity with innovative furniture pieces that integrate form and function seamlessly. Moreover, they offer something special with TENGARDENS by designing stunning Japanese gardens that incorporate nature's serene beauty in an architectural context. With a strong focus on craftsmanship and a profound involvement in their clients' wishes, the studio presents inspiring and unique spaces that continue to impress.
